

Sheriff's Charity Golf Tournament

Continued from Page 12A

Second place went to the Simpson's Nurseries' team of Drew Culbreath, Chip Culbreath, Brian Searcy and Buster "Corleone", shooting a 60, 12 under par.

The third place team of Chad Bass, Heath Bass, Derek Harden and JT Surles posted a 60, 12 under par, as well.

Fourth place went to the team of Stephen Greer, Scott Taylor, Bart Bosch and Mike Walker of Reinhart Foods, also shooting a 60, 12 under par.

Fifth place went to the team of Davis Revell, Harold Malloy, Danny Phelps and Michael Clark for shooting a 61, 11 under par.

The second flight winners were the team of Benny Bishop, Marty Bishop, Bubba Taylor and Terry Day posting a 61, 11 under par.

Second place went to the two-man team of Roy Kinsey and Jim Weldon, who shot a 64, 8 under par.

Third place winners were the team of Demott Anderson, Bobby Plaines, Paul Majors and Caldwell McCord, who shot a 65, 7 under par.

The fourth place team of Charley Jackson, Gerald Ikner, Tim Swords and Bill Watson, of team FMB, shot a 65, 7 under par.

Taking fifth place was the team of Bill Gunnels, Casey Gunnels, Phil Barker and John Stephens, who shot a 68, 4 under par.

The third flight winners were the team of Dixon Hughes, Caleb Burnette, Kevin Aman and Matt Bishop, of team "Nut-All-Rise". They posted an impressive 20 under par, 52, with their handicap.

Second place went to Mike Nichols, Greg Lindsey, Mike Mock and Jessie Reagan shooting a 53, 129 under par, with their handicap.

The third place prize went to the team of Chris Eades, OJ Sloan, Jason Strickland and Paul Peebles, shooting a 54, 18 under par with their handicap.

Fourth place went to Mary Beth Bishop, Steve Trocchio, Jerry Latimer and Eric Stratton, of Kinetic Performance 3, who shot a 54, 18 under par with their handicap.

Fifth place went to the team of Elbert Hartsfield, Casey Anderson, Benny Bishop and Merle Zinch who shot a 55, 17 under par with their handicap.

The "Keeping Up The Rear" last place trophy went to the team consisting of Angela Gray, Neil Wade, Johnny Abrams and Nick Flynt, who shot a 56, 16 under par with their handicap.

The long putt of the day was awarded to Marty Bishop on the second hole draining a tough 25-footer to win a new Odyssey White Hot putter.

The long drive for the day was on the ninth hole and went to Drew Culbreath. He received a gift card to Edwin Watts Golf Shop of Tallahassee.

Special thanks goes to; Beggs Funeral Home, Geoff and Pat Monge, Brannen Motor Company, Waukeenah Fertilizer, First Communications, Neil Wade, Walker's Dairy, Jake Edwards, Jolly & Peterson, I-10 Pecan House/Olan Nobles, Tommy Surles, Hunt Insurance, The Management Experts/Traci Buzbee, Gordon and Sherri Dean, Caleb and Lauren Burnette, Monticello Rotary, Brynwood Nursing Center, Jefferson County Kennel Club, Ciega, Inc., and OJ Sloan Lawn Maintenance.

Also, Riley Palmer, Chuck Sarkisian, Advanced Auto Parts, Jackson's Drug Store, Ponder's Office Supply, Roy Schleicher/Senta Goudy, Tanner Aman, Advanced Business Systems, Monticello Milling, National Safety Commission, Farmers and Merchants Bank, Bass Electric, Brick House Eatery, Tupelo's Bakery, JN "Junior" Tuten, Benny and Liz Bishop, Becky Stoutamire, Creative Stitches, KP3, Shula's 347 Grill, Hotel Duval, Level 8 Bar, Genghis Grill, Ol' Man Outdoors, C & F Fencing, JD James, Inc., Nature Bridges, Audy Payne, JT Surles, Bishop Farms, Edwin Watts and NAPA Auto Parts/Grubbs Petroleum

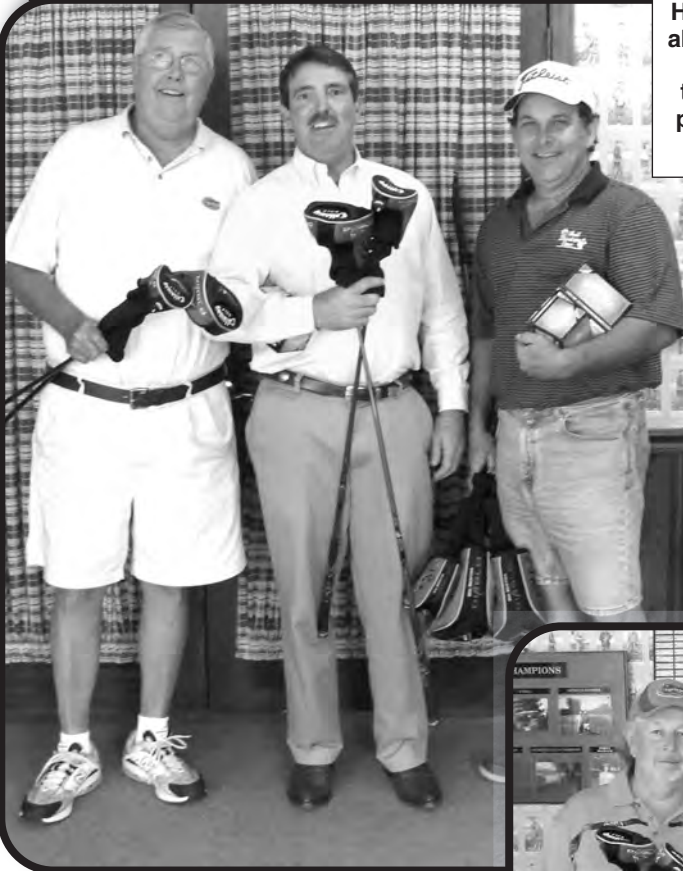

"A special thanks goes to Hal Bennett of Johnston's Meat Locker. Hal donated the entire meal for this event from the tournament inception. He is always willing to help local charities and provides a great service. When you are going by Johnston's, stop in and tell Hal thanks for supporting our community," concluded Sheriff David Hobbs.

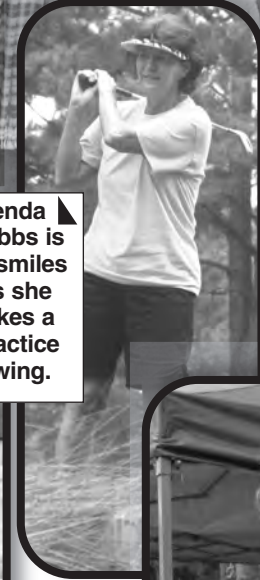

First Flight winners were the defending champions, Skip McElhenny, Glen Harrelson, JJ Mahaffy and Thorton Davis of K-MC Sports. They posted an impressive 56, 16 under par.

The long putt of the day was awarded to Marty Bishop on the second hole draining a tough 25-footer to win a new Odyssey White Hot putter.

Brenda Hobbs is all smiles as she takes a practice swing.

Tournament organizers Glen Bishop and Cricket Edwards.

Second Flight winners, Terry Day, Bubba Taylor, Benny Bishop, not pictured Marty Bishop posted a 61, 11 under par.

Sheriff David Hobbs and Judge Bobby Plaines prior to the afternoon tee-off.

Third Flight winners "Nut-All-Rise" Kevin Aman, Caleb Burnette, Matt Bishop, Dixon Hughes, posted an impressive 20 under par, 52, with their handicap.

Elbert Hartsfield and Casey Anderson enjoying a day of golf during the second annual Sheriff's Spring Charity Golf Tournament, May 1.

Charley Jackson was one me the many locals who came out in support of the sheriff during the Golf Tournament.

Look at all the prizes! Over $15,000 worth of Callaway balls and equipment was awarded as prizes for flight winners.

Some of the many volunteers that helped out during the event included, pictured left to right, Marvin Edwards, Don Barfield, Brittany Hobbs, Brenda Hobbs, David Hobbs, Liz Bishop, Cricket Edwards, Lauren Burnette and Glen Bishop.